ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
STRATEGIC CULTURAL INITIATIVES, INC.
A Florida Corporation Not for Profit

I, the undersigned, desiring to form a charitable corporation under and by virtue of the provisions of Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes, hereby make, subscribe, and file these Articles for that purpose, as follows:

ARTICLE I

NAME

The name of this corporation shall be:

STRATEGIC CULTURAL INITIATIVES, INC.

ARTICLE II

PURPOSES

The corporation is organized as a not-for-profit corporation, and shall be operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes as described in Florida Statutes Section 617.0301, and as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). The principal purpose for which the corporation is formed is to receive and administer funds for the purpose of engaging directly in community outreach programs to assist the underprivileged and needy, to provide relief to the poor, to promote social welfare and to lessen the burdens of government. The corporation may make distributions and grants to individuals, other community programs and other organizations that qualify as tax-exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code that are in furtherance of its charitable and educational purposes.

ARTICLE III

POWERS

Section 3.01. The corporation has all powers prescribed by law and all powers necessary and incidental to the fulfillment of its purposes, including but not limited to, the power to acquire by gift, devise, bequest, purchase, lease or otherwise, and to hold, own, occupy, use, manage, improve, develop, maintain, lease, sell, mortgage, transfer, invest in or reinvest in, or otherwise deal with any real or personal property (tangible or intangible) of whatever kind and description and wherever situated, or with any estate or interest, legal or equitable, in the property, to borrow money and to make, accept, endorse, execute and issue promissory notes and other obligations in payment for property acquired or money borrowed; and to do all such other acts as are necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes set forth in these Articles.

Section 3.02. Final control and responsibility for the receipt, management and distribution of all funds by the corporation shall rest with the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IV

LIMITATIONS

Section 4.01. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered.

Section 4.02. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise, except that the corporation may make the election provided for in Section 501(h) of the Code with respect to influencing legislation, and, only if it so elects, may make lobbying or grassroots expenditures that do not normally exceed the ceiling amounts prescribed by Sections 501(h)(2)(B) and (D) of the Code.

Section 4.03. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on:

(a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or

(b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 of the Code; or

(c) by a corporation formed pursuant to Chapter 617, Florida Statutes.

Section 4.04. Upon the dissolution or winding up of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational and scientific purposes as shall at that time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court of Palm Beach County, Florida, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Section 4.05. In the event that the corporation shall be a "private foundation" within the meaning of Section 509 of the Code, the corporation's income for each taxable year shall be distributed at such time and in such manner as not to subject it to tax under Section 4942 of the Code (unless the corporation is a "private operating foundation", in which case, Section 4942 of the Code is inapplicable), and the corporation shall be prohibited from engaging in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code, from retaining any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code, from making any investments in such manner as to subject the corporation to tax under Section 4944 of the Code, and from making any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code.
