ARTICLE VI - Scope of Managers' Authority:

Each Manager of the Professional Limited Liability Company, may by its/his/her sole signature, alone or joined by other Manager, if any, exercise the broadest powers granted by law, including, without limitation, except as may be otherwise limited by law, the power and authority to buy, develop, manage, sell, lease, rent, pledge, mortgage, transfer, exchange, convert, partition, and otherwise dispose of, and grant options with respect to, any and all property at any time owed by the Professional Limited Liability Company or in or to which the Professional Limited Liability Company may have an interest and/or claim, or any interest therein; and any sale may be a public or private sale for cash or for credit, with or without security; all for such purposes, at such times, and upon such terms as the Manager, may by its/his/her sole signature, alone or joined by other Managers, if any, determine. No transferee, lender, or other person will be bound to see to or be liable for the application of the proceeds of any transaction with a Manager of this Professional Limited Liability Company. The powers and authority herein described are not in limitation of any powers otherwise conferred upon a Manager of this Professional Limited Liability Company by law.

ARTICLE VII - Transferability of Member's Interest:

No member will have the right to assign the member's interest in the Professional Limited Liability Company, except to a duly licensed member of the Florida Bar, in good standing, with the written consent of all the Members. If all the Members do not approve the assignment, the assignee will have no right to become a member, to participate in the elections of the managers of the Professional Limited Liability Company or to exercise any other rights or powers of a member. The assignee, who must be a member of the Florida Bar, in good standing, will merely be entitled to receive the share of profits and other distributions and the allocation of income, gain, loss, deduction, credit or similar item to which the assignor was entitled, to the extent assigned.
