The corporation is a nonprofit corporation, organized under the Florida Non-Profit Corporation Act (the "Act").

ARTICLE THREE DURATION

The Company shall remain in existence from the date the Articles of Incorporation are filed with the Florida Department of State until terminated in accordance with the provisions of the Florida Non-Profit Corporation Act or the Company's operating agreement.

ARTICLE FOUR PURPOSES

The specific purpose for which the corporation is organized is to provide a faith-base transitional living facility for the homeless suffering with substance abuse issues. The general purposes for which the corporation is organized are exclusively charitable, religious, literary, education or scientific within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or of any superseding federal tax law (the "Code"). The corporation will not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

ARTICLE FIVE MEMBERS/CAPITAL STOCK

The corporation shall have no members. No shares of capital stock shall be issued period including to any members of the corporation, and the conditions of membership shall be stated in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE SIX POWER/LIMITATIONS

(1) Improper Benefit. No part of the net earnings of the corporation will inure to the benefit of any Director, trustee, or officer of the corporation or of any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for personal services rendered to or for the corporation for one or more of its purposes), and no Director, trustee, or officer of the corporation or any private individual will be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets upon dissolution of the corporation.

(2) Lobbying. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation will consist of lobbying, carrying on of propaganda, or of other attempts to influence legislation.

(3) Political campaigns. The corporation will not participate or intervene in any way (including the publication or distribution of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office (including city, county, state, and federal government offices).

(4) Private Foundation. If the corporation is a private foundation rather than a public charity within the meaning of Sections 501 and 509 of the Code, the corporation will comply with all Code provisions regarding private foundations, including but not limited to the following:

(a) The corporation will not engage in self-dealing within the meaning of Section 4941 of the Code.

(b) The corporation will make sufficient qualifying distributions during each taxable year to avoid the tax imposed by Section 4942 on a private foundation's undistributed net income.
