Article III Purpose is amended to read:

The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, as allowed under section 501 (c) 3 of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The specific nature of business for this corporation is to provide employment, life skills, and recreational services for individuals with mental, physical and/or economic barriers. The primary focus is to provide training and support that prepares these individuals to be successfully employed and to enable them to gain and retain meaningful careers. The secondary focus is to teach life skills to those individuals who need this type of support, in order to enable them to live as independently as possible. This would include skills such as managing their finances, maintaining their appearance for employment, securing housing, engaging in recreational activities, and navigating public transportation, etc.
No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons except that the organization shall be authorized to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purpose set forth in the purpose clause hereof.
No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Amend to Add:
Article VIII

The corporation is organized under a non-stock basis.
