Defend Your Trademark™

Defend Your Trademark™ services is devoted to preserving your trademark rights and the protection it deserves. Defend Your Trademark™ provides domain name analysis and evaluation services for the continued protection of your trademark. When you use the Defend My Trademark™ services, you can expect domain name analysis, comprehensive searches which include both trademark and domain name evaluations, linking your trademark rights to your domain or another possibly conflicting domains. We know that you may already have a registered trademark and we work with you to protect your trademark rights. In defensive actions we deconstruct the trademark markets and the trademarks from descriptive and generic domain names. Whether or not legal action is required through the use of the Uniform Domain Dispute Resolution (UDRP) or in federal courts throughout the U.S. under the AntiCybersquatting Consumer Protection Act (ACPA), Defend Your Trademark™ services can assist you in appropriate proactive or defensive positioning that you need for your business. Our services do not end with a trademark registration, as we also work with our clients to develop protection enforcement strategies, negotiate licenses, and represent our clients in administrative opposition and cancellation proceedings in the Patent and Trademark Office before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board (TTAB). Whatever your needs may be, Defend Your Trademark™ services can help.
