Articles of Incorporation

Article VIII. Additional Provisions

1. The Corporation may carry on any business, operation or activity referred to in Article III to the same extent as an individual, whether as principal, agent, contractor or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction or a joint venture or other arrangement with any corporation, association, trust, firm or individual.
2. The Corporation shall have no members.
3. The directors may make, amend or repeal the Bylaws in whole or in part, except with respect to any provision thereof which is prohibited by law.
4. A director of the Corporation shall not be liable to the Corporation for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except to the extent that elimination of liability is not permitted under Fla. Stat. § 617.01011, et. seq., as in effect at the time such liability is determined. No amendment or repeal of this Article VIII shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any director of the Corporation for or with respect to any acts or omission of such director occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.
5. The Corporation shall have all powers granted to corporations organized under the laws of the State of Florida provided that no such power shall include any activity impermissible under Fla. Stat. § 617.01011 et. seq. or Article III that references purposes of the Corporation.
6. The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and/or scientific purposes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code").
7. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article 4. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any provision hereof, the Corporation shall not carry on any activity not permitted to be carried on by (a) an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 1709(c)(2) of the Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
8. Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government for public purpose.
