Article III: The purpose for which this Limited Liability Company is Organized is:

Collision Repair to Wholesale & Retail Clients, since Approximately March 2013.

Notes: Slowly little by little, we gave up on car sales and solely have dedicated ourselves to the collision repair business. We even did not renew our Florida Automobile Dealer's License in April 2014, because we were no longer buying and selling vehicles. Instead we were solely repairing cars for wholesale dealers, as well as a separate dealer which has been family owned since 2009, under a separate business entity name. We just recently noticed while filling our annual report for 2014, that we had not updated this with the state, and decided to do so immediately in order to be in full compliance. We have had our MVR & MV license with both the state of Florida and the county of Miami-Dade since beginning of 2013. Hopefully this can be corrected and show clearly, as to what our company really is. Thanks!
