Dear Mr. McLaughlin:

I enclose herewith a copy of a communication received from you dated May 5, 1972, regarding the change of name of Cenflorin, Inc. to Central Florida Investments, Inc. At the time that I sent in the Amendment changing the name of Cenflorin, Inc., I enclosed a Certificate and Minutes pertaining to the dissolution of the existing Central Florida Investments, Inc. I assume that the change of name of Cenflorin cannot be accomplished until the existing Central Florida Investments, Inc. has been completely dissolved, and I would appreciate corroboration with regard to whether or not this is the sole reason for the return by your office of the Amendment changing the name of Cenflorin, Inc. to Central Florida Investments, Inc.

Please advise me.
