ARTICLE X: CONFLICT OF INTERESTS

Provisions for the regulation of the internal affairs of the Corporation as follows:

A. The Corporation shall not possess or exercise any power or authority, expressly, by interpretation, or by operation of law, that will prevent it in any time from qualifying and continuing to qualify as a corporation described in section 501 (c)(4) of the Code, nor shall it engage directly or indirectly in any activity which would cause the loss of such qualification.

B. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to any member, director or officer of the Corporation, or any other private person, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the Corporation and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purpose set forth in Article III hereof.

C. The Corporation shall never be operated for the primary purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit.

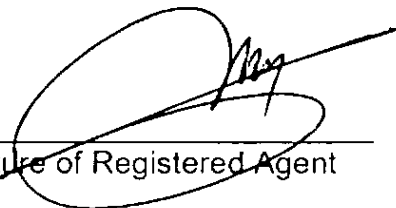

D. At no time shall the Corporation engage in any activities which are unlawful under the laws of the United States of America, the State of Florida, or any other jurisdiction where its activities are carried on.

ARTICLE XI: DISSOLUTION

Provisions for distribution of assets on dissolution or final liquidation are as follows:

A. Upon the termination, dissolution, or winding up of the Corporation in any manner or for any reason, its assets, if any, remaining after payment (or provision for payment) of all liabilities of the Corporation shall be applied and distributed in accordance with a plan of distribution adopted by the Board of Directors. Under such plan, the assets must be applied for purposes described in the Article III hereof, distributed to one or more organizations that are exempt from taxation under section 501 (c)(4) and have purposes similar to the Corporation, be distributed to one or more corporations, funds or foundations that are exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or be distributed in any way that is not inconsistent with the Act or any provision or principle of tax law applicable to organizations described in section 501 (c)(4) of the Code.
