Except as otherwise provided by the Florida Revised Limited Liability Company Act (the "Act"), the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the company, whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise, shall be solely the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the company, and the members, including any member who is a manager, shall not be obligated personally for any debt, obligation, or liability of the company solely by reason of being a member or a manager. The failure of the company to observe any formalities or requirements relating to the exercise of its powers or the management of its business or affairs under these Articles of Organization or the Act shall not be grounds for imposing personal liability on the member for any debts, liabilities, or obligations of the company. Except as otherwise expressly required by law, the members, in the member's capacity as members, shall have no liability in excess of (a) the amount of the member's net capital contributions, (b) the member's share of any assets and undistributed profits of the company, and (c) the amount of any distributions required to be returned under the Florida Revised Limited Liability Company Act.

Indemnified Party in connection with the business of the company or by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed in connection with the activities of the company or in dealing with third parties on behalf of the company, including costs and attorneys' fees before and at trial and at all appellate levels, whether or not suit is instituted (which attorneys' fees may be paid as incurred), and any amounts expended in the settlement of any claims of liability, loss, or damage, provided that the act or omission of the Indemnified Party does not constitute conduct involving bad faith or fraud or willful misconduct by the Indemnified Party. The company shall not pay for any insurance covering liability of the member, the manager, or their agents, affiliates, heirs, legal representatives, successors, and assigns for actions or omissions for which indemnification is not permitted under these Articles of Organization; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Agreement shall preclude the company from purchasing and paying for those types of insurance, including extended coverage liability and casualty and workers' compensation, as would be customary for any person owning, managing, and/or operating comparable property and engaged in a similar business, or from naming the member, the manager, and any of the member's and manager's agents, affiliates, heirs, legal representatives, successors, or assigns or any Indemnified Party as additional insured parties under the agreement.

(c) Nonexclusive Right. The provisions of this Article X shall be in addition to and not in limitation of any other rights of indemnification and reimbursement or limitations of liability to which an Indemnified Party may be entitled under the Act, common law, or otherwise. Notwithstanding any repeal of this Article X or other amendment hereof, its provisions shall be binding upon the company (subject only to
