Article I – Name

The name of this corporation is
THE GREENHAVEN PROJECT, INC

Article II – Purpose

- A. This corporation is organized and shall operate exclusively for charitable, educational, and scientific purposes, including such, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. This corporation may engage in only such activities as are permitted under the laws of the State of Florida and the United States of America, which shall constitute activities in furtherance of such exempt purposes. In furtherance of such purposes, this corporation may promote, establish, conduct and maintain activities on its own behalf, and it may contribute to or otherwise assist other corporations, organizations and institutions carrying on exempt activities.
- B. As a means incidental to accomplishing the purposes for which this corporation is being organized, it shall have the following powers:
1. To accept, require, receive and hold by bequest, devise, grant, gift, purchase, exchange, lease, transfer or otherwise, for any of its objects and purposes, any property, both real and personal, of whatever nature or description and wherever situated; and
 2. To sell, exchange, convey, mortgage, lease, transfer or otherwise dispose of any such property, both real and personal, as the objects and purposes of the corporation may require, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by law; and
 3. To borrow money and, from time to time, to make, accept, endorse, execute and issue bonds, debentures, promissory notes, bills of exchange and other obligations of the corporation for monies borrowed or in payment for property acquired or for any of the other purposes of the corporation, and to secure the payment of any such obligations by mortgages, pledge, deed, indenture, agreement or other instrument of trust, or by any other lien upon, assignment of, or agreement in regard to all or any part of the property, rights or privileges of the corporation, wheresoever situated; and
 4. To invest or reinvest its funds in stocks, bonds, debentures, mortgages or other investments or securities and property as its Board of Directors shall deem advisable, subject to the limitations and conditions contained in any bequest, devise, grant or gift; and

5. To serve as trustee of any property, real or personal, wheresoever situated either within or without the State of Florida; and
 6. In general, to exercise such other powers which now are or which hereafter may be conferred by law upon a corporation organized for the purposes herein above set forth or necessary or incidental to the powers so conferred or conducive to the attainment of the purposes of the corporation, subject to such limitations as are or may be prescribed by law.
- C. Notwithstanding everything herein to the contrary, this corporation may exercise any and all (but no other) powers in furtherance of the exempt purposes of organizations set forth in Section. 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and its Regulations as the same now exist, or as they may be hereafter amended from time to time.

D. Exempt Purpose

Accordingly, the corporation shall; absolutely refrain from participating in political campaigns; ensure that its earnings and assets do not unjustly enrich board members, officers, key management employees, or other insiders; not further nonexempt purposes more than insubstantially; not operate for the primary purpose of conducting a trade or business that is not related to exempt purposes; not engage in activities that are illegal or violate public policy; and restrict its legislative activities in accordance with Section 501 (c)(3).

However, reimbursement for expenditures or the payment of reasonable compensation for services rendered shall not be deemed to be a distribution of income or principal.

No part of the income, principal, holdings or assets of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributed to any member, director or officer of the corporation or any other private individual in such a fashion as to constitute an application of funds not within the purpose of exempt organizations described in Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

- E. Dissolution – Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501 ©(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the organization as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
