ARTICLE IX. SUPPLEMENTAL PROVISIONS

- a. The Church is not formed for pecuniary profit or for financial gain and no part of its assets, income or net earnings shall be distributed to or inure to the benefit of any member, director, officer, employee, or private individual. Reasonable compensation, however, may be paid for services actually rendered to or for the Church in furtherance of one or more of its purposes. Reimbursement for expenses actually incurred in attending to the affairs of the Church shall be limited to reasonable amounts. No member, director, officer, employee, or private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the Church's assets upon dissolution of the Church.
- b. The Church will not engage in a regular business ordinarily carried on for profit.
- c. No substantial part of the activities of the Church shall be devoted to carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, in a manner or to an extent which would disqualify the Church for tax exemption under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. The Church shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.
- d. In the event of dissolution or other termination of the Church, its remaining assets, if any, after payment of expenses and satisfaction of all obligations and liabilities, if any, shall be distributed only for tax-exempt purposes to one or more organizations that are exempt under Section 501(c)(3), or described by Section 170(c)(1) or Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Having been named as registered agent to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I am familiar with and accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity
