Article II:

Detailed Description of Purposes

- (a) The specific and primary purposes for which the Corporation is formed is to develop a social and educational organization for the exchange of ideas and activities among professionals located in southwest Florida.
- (b) The general purposes for which this Corporation is formed are as follows:
 - (1) To acquire or otherwise, own, and enjoy in fee simple, or otherwise, any personal, real or mixed property necessary for the uses and purposes of this Corporation; and to dispose of the same at the pleasure of the Corporation and for the users and purposes for which this Corporation is formed.
 - (2) To enter into all lawful contracts and obligations essential or convenient for the transaction of the affairs of the Corporation and to borrow money and issue notes, bills and evidence of indebtedness or mortgage, as the Corporation may deem advisable, within the limits approved by its bylaws, and do any other thing necessary, suitable and proper for the accomplishment of any objects specified here or which may at any time appear conducive to or expedient for the interests or benefits of this Corporation or its members.
 - (3) To expend monies received, collected or earned by this Corporation from all sources for the payment and discharge of all costs and obligations incurred by the Corporation in carrying out the purposes for which this Corporation is formed.
 - (4) To do all lawful things and acts which this Corporation at any time shall, in the discretion of the directors deem to be in the best interest of the members and to pay all costs and expenses in connection with these acts.

Article III:
Duration

The Corporation shall have perpetual duration.

Article IV:
Tax Exemption Requirements

- (a) The Corporation is organized and operated exclusively for the purposes set forth herein.
- (b) Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a Corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code.
- (c) No substantial part of the activities of this Corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements on behalf of any candidate for public office).

Article V:
Restrictions on Private Foundations

Notwithstanding any other provision in these Articles, if this Corporation is deemed or determined to be a "private foundation" within the meaning of section 509 of the Internal Revenue Code, then this Corporation shall be subject to the following limitations and restrictions:

- (a) The Corporation shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
- (b) The Corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
- (c) The Corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
- (d) The Corporation shall not make any investment in such manner as to subject it to tax under section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
- (e) The Corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article VI:
No Member Vote

The Corporation shall be governed by its Board of Directors. While the Corporation may have "members", such members shall have no vote or control over the Corporation.
