How to Choose the right Bus for your Organization

Small Bus Category

Small buses are classified as a bus that has under 15 passengers which including the driver. Any bus carrying 15 passengers or more including the driver does not require a Commercial Drivers License.

Medium Bus Category

Medium buses typically carry between 16 and 30 passengers including the driver. Our medium size buses often offer the greatest value of all of the buses we sell.

Large Bus Category

A bus that carries 31 passengers or more including the driver would be classified as a large bus. Large buses offer organizations the ability to carry all of their passengers without the need for multiple vehicles.
