Re: Floridian Arms Inc.
Your Letter No. 923A00015905

Dear Ms. Butler:

I had submitted my executed Resignation of Registered Agent form to the Division for Floridian Arms Inc., number N12200001790. You have returned the form with your letter number 923A00015905. Both documents are enclosed.

You advise that a signature on behalf of Floridian Arms Inc. is necessary to complete my resignation form. That is incorrect. The form requires a signature of an entity if the entity was named as the registered agent. Here, my individual name is shown as the current Registered Agent, I have signed the form, and no other signature is necessary.

If your reading of the form was correct, then the form would specifically state that a signature was necessary from the corporation (profit or non-profit). That is not how the form currently reads. Registered Agents can be individuals or companies/entities. If the Registered Agent here for Floridian Arms Inc. was an entity, a signature from an authorized person from the entity would be required. That is not the case.

I am individually the Registered Agent for Floridian Arms Inc. I want to resign. Please review the enclosures and process as appropriate. Thank you for your assistance here.

Very truly yours,

ROBERT E. PAIGE, ESQ.
