Section 5. Any corporation failing to comply with the provisions of this Act for six months shall forfeit its corporate and charter privileges and shall not be permitted to maintain any action in any court in this State until such reports are filed and all fees due hereunder paid. On January first of each year the Secretary of State shall make up a list of the corporations of record in his office which have failed to comply with the provisions of this Act and shall mail a copy of such list to the Clerks of the Circuit Courts, the Civil Courts of Record, the Circuit Judges and the Justices of the Peace of this State.

Section 6. The following shall be exempt from the provisions of this Act: railroad companies, publican companies, telephone and telegraph companies, bank and trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, cooperative marketing associations and corporations not for profit.

Section 7. All statements required to be filed under this Act shall be for the calendar year and where a corporation's fiscal year ends other than the calendar year it shall have sixty days after the ending of its fiscal year in which to file the statement as provided in this Act.

Section 11. Any corporation paying the maximum fee herein provided for shall not be required to file any reports or statements required by the provisions of this Act.

Section 12. In the event the shares of stock of any such corporation should be no par value, then for the purposes of this Act, each share shall be deemed or presumed to have value of at least $100.00 per share, which presumption may be overcome by actual proof submitted to the Secretary of State. For the purposes of this Act the Secretary of State is hereby authorized to make such investigation as he may consider necessary and to increase or decrease the value of no-par value stock as he may determine to be correct from the proof submitted.

Approved May 28, 1931.
