PLAN OF DISSOLUTION
OF CENTRAL OIL COMPANY

This Plan of Dissolution (the "Plan") is intended to accomplish the dissolution and winding-up of Central Oil Company, a Florida corporation ("Central"), in accordance with the Florida Statutes §§607.1402 - 607.1406, as follows:

1. The Board of Directors of Central (the "Board of Directors") has adopted this Plan as of October 24, 2008 (the "Adoption Date") and the sole shareholder of Central approved this plan on the Adoption Date.

2. From and after the Adoption Date, Central shall complete the following corporate actions:

(a) Central shall pay or, as determined by the Board of Directors, make reasonable provision to pay, all claims, liabilities and obligations of Central, including all unascertained, contingent, conditional or unmatured claims known to Central and all claims which are known to Central but for which the identity of the claimant is unknown;

(b) If any assets are held by Central upon condition requiring return, transfer, or conveyance, which condition occurs by reason of this dissolution of Central, then Central shall return, transfer or convey such assets in accordance with such requirements;

(c) If any assets are held by Central subject to limitations permitting their use only for charitable, religious, eleemosynary, benevolent, educational, or similar purposes, but not held upon a condition requiring return, transfer, or conveyance by reason of the dissolution, then Central shall transfer or convey such assets to one or more domestic or foreign corporations, trusts, societies, or organizations engaged in activities substantially similar to those of Central

(d) All assets of Central remaining, after compliance with Sections 2(a), 2(b) and 2(c) above, shall be distributed in accordance with the provisions of Central's Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws to the extent that they determine the distributive rights of the shareholders, or any class or classes of shareholders, and if not, then Central's assets shall be distributed to its sole shareholder, Midstream Fuel Service LLC. If and to the extent deemed necessary, appropriate or desirable by the Board of Directors, in their absolute discretion, Central may establish and set aside a reasonable amount of cash and/or property (the "Contingency Reserve") to satisfy claims against and unmatured or contingent liabilities and obligation of Central, including, without limitation, tax obligations, and all expenses of the sale of Central's property and assets, of the collection and defense of Central's property and assets, and the liquidation and dissolution provided for in this Plan.

4. Any distributions to the stockholders of Central pursuant hereto shall be in complete redemption and cancellation of all of the outstanding Common Stock of Central. As a condition to receipt of any distribution to Central's stockholders, the Board of Directors, in their absolute discretion, may require the stockholders to (i) surrender their certificates evidencing the Common Stock to Central or its agents for recording of such distributions thereon or (ii) furnish Central with evidence satisfactory to the Board of Directors of the loss, theft or destruction of their certificates evidencing the Common Stock, together with such surety bond or other security or indemnity as may be required by and satisfactory to the Board of Directors. As a condition to receipt of any final distribution to Central's stockholders, the Board of Directors, in their absolute discretion, may require the stockholders to (i) surrender their certificates evidencing the Common Stock to Central or its agent for cancellation or (ii) furnish Central with such security or indemnity. The Company will finally close its stock transfer books and discontinue recording transfers of Common Stock on the earliest to occur of (i) the close of business on the record date fixed by the Board of Directors for the final liquidating distribution, (ii) the close of business on the date on which the remaining assets of Central are transferred to the shareholders or (iii) such other date on which the Board of Directors, in accordance with applicable law, determines and close such stock transfer books, and thereafter certificates representing Common Stock will not Central assignable or transferable on the books of Central except by will, intestate succession, or operation of law.

5. If any distribution to a stockholder cannot Central made, whether because the stockholder cannot Central located, has not surrendered its certificates evidencing the Common Stock as required hereunder or for any other reason, the distribution to which such stockholder is entitled shall be transferred, at such time as the final liquidating distribution is made by Central, to the official of such state or other jurisdiction authorized by applicable law to receive the proceeds of such distribution. The proceeds of such distribution shall thereafter be held solely for the benefit of and for ultimate distribution to such stockholder as the sole equitable owner thereof and shall be treated as abandoned property and escheat to the applicable state or other jurisdiction in accordance with applicable law. In no event shall the proceeds of any such distribution revert to or become the property of Central.

6. After the Adoption Date, but subject to Section 2 above, the officers of Central shall, at such time as the Board of Directors, in its absolute discretion, deems necessary, appropriate or desirable, obtain any certificates required from the Florida tax authorities and, upon obtaining such certificates, Central shall file with the Secretary of State of the State of Florida Articles of Dissolution in accordance with Florida law. After the filing of the Articles of Dissolution, Central shall not engage in any business activities except to the extent necessary to preserve the value of its assets, wind-up its business affairs and distribute its assets in accordance with this Plan.

8. In connection with and for the purposes of implementing and assuring completion of this Plan, Central may, in the absolute discretion of the Board of Directors, pay any brokerage, agency, professional and other fees and expenses of persons rendering services to Central in connection with the collection, sale, exchange or other disposition of Central's property and assets and the implementation of this Plan.

11. Central shall continue to indemnify its officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives in accordance with its certificate of incorporation, as amended, and by-laws and any contractual arrangements, for the actions taken in connection with this Plan and the winding-up of the affairs of Central. The Board of Directors, in their absolute discretion, are authorized to obtain and maintain insurance as may be necessary or appropriate to cover Central's obligation hereunder, including seeking an extension in time and coverage of Central's insurance policies currently in effect.

12. The Board of Directors may modify, amend or abandon this Plan and the transactions contemplated hereby without further action by the stockholders to the extent permitted by the Florida law.

13. The Board of Directors of Central is hereby authorized, without further action by Central's stockholders, to do and perform or cause the officers of Central, subject to approval of the Board of Directors, to do and perform, any and all acts, and to make, execute, deliver or adopt any and all agreements, resolutions, conveyances, certificates and other documents of every kind which are deemed necessary, appropriate or desirable, in the absolute discretion of the Board of Directors, to implement this Plan and the transaction contemplated hereby, including, without limiting the foregoing, all filings or acts required by any state or federal law or regulation to wind-up its affairs.
