Dear Sir:

Recently I received a notice from you office that you had not received the annual report for this corporation. I mailed the original with our company check # 4186 on January 30, 2007 and did not realize that the check had not cleared until I received your delinquent notice. Evidently the original annual report and check have been misplaced by the Postal Department.

I am enclosing a signed copy of the original report sent and a new check. Please waive any late fees since I did act in a timely manner. I believe you will see that we have been a Florida Corporation for 50+ years and always filed on time.

Your assistance in this matter is most appreciated.

Sincerely,

Werner Christiansen
Secretary / Director
