Attention: Corporation Division

Dear Mr. Firestone:

Although I have not received your May 9, 1986 letter in answer to my April 29, 1986 letter, I have been telephonically advised by your office that the certificates that I forwarded in my April 29, 1986 letter must be notarized. Accordingly, enclosed is the original and two copies of the certificate setting forth the amendment. I understand further that the Corporation's check in the amount of $45 covering the filing fee for the amendment and the fee for two certified copies is being held by your office.

Will you please return the two certified copies to my attention.

Sincerely,

J. E. Hastings

SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

I, the undersigned Assistant Secretary of The Wackenhut Corporation, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Florida, do hereby certify that at a Annual Shareholders Meeting of The Wackenhut Corporation held April 25, 1986, the following resolution was adopted:

RESOLVED: That the last paragraph of Article XII of the Articles of Incorporation shall be and it shall hereby be amended to read as follows:

The Corporation shall indemnify every person who was or is a party or is or was threatened to be made a party to any action, suit or proceeding whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative by reason of the fact he is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee, agent or trustee of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, (except in such cases involving gross negligence or willful misconduct) in the performance of their duties, to the full extent permitted by applicable law. Such indemnification may, in the discretion of the Board of Directors, include advances of his expenses in advance of final disposition subject to the provisions of applicable law. Such right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of any right to which any director, officer, employee, agent or controlling stockholder of the Corporation may be entitled as a matter of law.

I further certify that the foregoing is fully in accord with and pursuant to the By-Laws of said Corporation, and that the same is in full force and effect.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed the Seal of said Corporation, on this 16th day of April, 1986.
