Dear Concernees:

LOFAR corp had its office in my primary office building, which was sold in latter half of 1997.

We tried real hard to get the news to each & every mailor in regards to the change of address.

Some of our mail did not get forwarded....and my bookkeeper left in order to start her own business....and hence our receipt of your "second notice".

My new bookkeeper has called your office and was instructed to send in the original billing amount....herewith that check.

Thank you for your gracious understanding.

Gratefully,

Edward L. FARRAR, Jr.
President
