AGREEMENT OF MERGER, dated as of January 7 1961, between the following nine Florida corporations: GRIFFIN CONCENTRATE CO., (herein sometimes called "Concentrate"); BEN HILL GRIFFIN, INC., (herein sometimes called "Griffin"); GRIFFIN CANNERS, INCORPORATED, (herein sometimes called "Canners"); GRIFFIN CITRUS SERVICE COMPANY, (herein sometimes called "Service"); GRIFFIN FRUIT CO., (herein sometimes called "Fruit"); GRIFFIN LANDS, INC., (herein sometimes called "Lands"); GRIFFIN GROVES, INC., (herein sometimes called "Groves"); GRIFFIN & SMITH, INC., (herein sometimes called "Smith"); and GRIFFIN PROPERTIES, INC., (herein sometimes called "Properties"); (all nine corporations being herein sometimes collectively called "constituent corporations"); and between the holders of a majority of the voting stock of each of the constituent corporations (herein sometimes called "Holders").

The constituent corporations are engaged in various phases of the citrus business and this merger would improve the efficiency and potential profitability of the continuing corporation in conducting those same businesses. The stockholders of the constituent corporations are substantially the same persons and they shall continue as stockholders of the continuing corporation. To simplify the mechanics of the merger, the stockholders of Concentrate shall exchange their 52,004 issued and outstanding shares of common stock with no par value solely for 260 shares of common stock with no par value of Concentrate, an exchange ratio of 200 for 1, before the effective date of the merger. The offer shall be in writing and shall set forth the price and terms and shall be sent by registered mail to each stockholder at the address listed on the corporation books, and to the corporation. The right to transfer the stock shall not exist until all existing stockholders refuse the offer made as provided above or until they fail for a period of 30 days after receipt of the written offer to accept same by compliance with the terms therein set forth. Within such 30-day period, some of the stockholders or the corporation may accept the offer, with the accepting stockholders having the right to purchase the stock on a pro rata basis among themselves, and the corporation having the right to purchase the stock if the stockholders do not. Regulations as to the formalities and procedure to be followed in effecting the transfer shall be prescribed in the by-laws of this corporation. Holders desire to merge the constituent corporations into Concentrate (herein sometimes also called "continuing corporation") and, at stockholders' meetings held pursuant to Section 608.11, Florida Statutes, Holders designated B. H. Griffin, Jr. to sign this agreement for them under the corporate seals of the constituent corporations, all in accordance with Section 608.20, Florida Statutes. The constituent corporations are engaged in various phases of the citrus business and this merger would improve the efficiency and potential profitability of the continuing corporation in conducting these same businesses. The stockholders of the constituent corporations are substantially the same persons and they shall continue as stockholders of the continuing corporation. To simplify the mechanics of the merger, the stockholders of Concentrate shall exchange their 52,004 issued and outstanding shares of common stock with no par value solely for 260 shares of common stock with no par value of Concentrate, an exchange ratio of 200 for 1, before the effective date of the merger. The name of the continuing corporation (Concentrate) shall be changed to Ben Hill Griffin, Inc.

IN CONSIDERATION of the background premises and of the mutual agreements and covenants herein contained, it is agreed that Griffin, Cannery, Service, Fruit, Lands, Groves, Smith and Properties shall be and they hereby are merged into Concentrate, which shall be the surviving and continuing corporation, pursuant to the laws of Florida, and the terms and conditions of such merger and the mode of carrying it into effect are and shall be as follows:

(c) To conduct business in, to have one or more offices in, and to buy, hold, mortgage, sell, convey, lease, or otherwise dispose of real and personal property, including franchises, patents, copyrights, trademarks, and licenses in, the State of Florida and in all other states, territories, possessions and countries.

(d) The board of directors may indemnify directors and officers against liability for their good faith acts and omissions.

(e) The board of directors of the continuing corporation is hereby specifically authorized to make provision for reasonable compensation to its members for their services as directors, and to fix the basis and conditions upon which such compensation shall be paid. are not inconsistent with the provisions of this agreement or with any by-laws which may be adopted by the stockholders.

^{OUT} 5. Restrictions on transfer of stock. No issued and outstanding stock in this corporation shall be transferred to a person who is not already a stockholder unless the stock shall have first been offered for sale to each of the other stockholders of this corporation at the same price and on the same terms as contained in a bona fide offer received by the stockholder desiring to transfer stock. The offer shall be in writing and shall set forth the price and terms and shall be sent by registered mail to each stockholder at the address listed on the corporation books, and to the corporation. The right to transfer the stock shall not exist until all existing stockholders refuse the offer made as provided above or until they fail for a period of 30 days after receipt of the written offer to accept same by compliance with the terms therein set forth. Within such 30-day period, some of the stockholders or the corporation may accept the offer, with the accepting stockholders having the right to purchase the stock on a pro rata basis among themselves, and the corporation having the right to purchase the stock if the stockholders do not. Regulations as to the formalities and procedure to be followed in effecting the transfer shall be prescribed in the by-laws of this corporation. This provision may be rescinded, terminated, and cancelled (either permanently or for a specified period of time) at any annual or special meeting of the stockholders by a two-thirds vote of all shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote. The board of directors of the continuing corporation may further restrict the transfer of stock by adopting such restrictions in the by-laws. Each certificate of stock issued by the continuing corporation shall contain a brief reference that transfer of the stock may be restricted by provisions of this agreement or in the by-laws.

§ 6. Conversion of shares. The manner and basis of payment for the shares of each of the constituent corporations and the manner of converting the shares of each of the constituent corporations into the shares of the continuing corporation shall be as follows:

(g) None of the constituent corporations shall issue or sell, or issue rights to subscribe to, any shares of its capital stock prior to the effective date of the merger, nor shall any of the constituent corporations declare or pay any dividends prior to the effective date of the merger, except that the stockholders of Concentrate shall make the exchange referred to in the background premises.

(h) None of the constituent corporations shall incur, prior to the effective date of the merger, any obligation not within the express contemplation of this agreement, whether by contract or otherwise, except pursuant to existing agreements and arrangements and except in the ordinary course of business, nor dispose of any material portion of its business or property.

(i) Upon the effective date of the merger, the separate existence of the constituent corporations (except Concentrate) shall cease, and the constituent corporations shall become a single Florida corporation merged into Concentrate in accordance with this agreement, possessing all the rights, privileges, powers, franchises, whether or not by their terms assignable, and immunities, as well as of a public or private nature, and properties, real, personal and mixed belonging to all the constituent corporations, however acquired. All rights of creditors and all liens upon the property of the constituent corporations shall be preserved unimpaired, limited in lien to the property affected by such liens at the time of the merger, and all debts, contracts, liabilities, obligations, and duties of the respective constituent corporations shall thenceforth attach to the continuing corporation, and may be enforced against it to the extent as if they had been incurred or controlled by it.

(j) If, at any time the continuing corporation shall consider or be advised that any further assignments or assurances in law or any things are necessary to vest in the continuing corporation, according to the terms hereof, the title to any property or rights of any of the constituent corporations, the proper officers and directors of such constituent corporation shall and will execute and make all such proper assignments and assurances and do all things necessary or proper to vest title in such property or rights in the continuing corporation, and otherwise to carry out the purposes of this agreement.

(k) Upon the effective date of the merger, the assets and liabilities of the constituent corporations shall be carried on the books of the continuing corporation at the amounts at which they shall respectively be carried on such date on the books of the constituent corporations, subject to such intercompany adjustments or eliminations as may be required to give effect to the merger. The capital stock of the continuing corporation shall be issued to its stockholders in accordance with paragraph 6 of this agreement.

(l) This agreement may be terminated and the merger herein provided for may be abandoned by any or all of the constituent corporations at any time prior to the effective date.

7. Effective date of merger.

(a) This agreement shall be submitted to the stockholders of record of each of the constituent corporations, and adopted by such stockholders; the secretary of each constituent corporation shall certify such stockholder approval; the president and secretary of each constituent corporation shall sign and acknowledge this agreement; and the agreement shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state of the State of Florida and the proper fees and taxes paid to the secretary of state; all in accordance with Section 608.20(2), Florida Statutes.

8. Right to amend certificate of incorporation.

This agreement of merger shall constitute the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation from and after the effective date of the merger.
