RE: Corporation Re-Instatement---Myer's Plumbing Co., Inc.

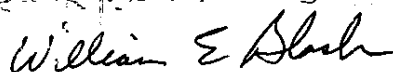

To Whom It May Concern:

I have only recently become aware that the above referenced corporation was administratively dissolved in September of 2003. Within the past two years, the corporation has gone through some dramatic changes. Two of the originating members of the corporation sold their shares to myself and Mr. Fine and dissociated themselves from the corporation. When this was done, Mr. Fine became the registered agent and President of the Corporation. It was my understanding that the affairs of the corporation were being handled by Mr. Fine; however, Mr. Fine passed away recently and I am now discovering that our corporation status has been dissolved due to failure to file an annual report. We were never given the opportunity to file an annual report because of Mr. Fine's death and the fact that the principal office address was never changed over to Mr. Fine's address.

I would like to continue under the assumed corporation name as it has been in place since January of 1960. Since I was never afforded an opportunity to file an annual report due to the fact I never received one, I am enclosing a check for one hundred and fifty ($150) dollars which is the fee for such instances. As you will see from the check signature, my corporation is still in the process of moving Mr. Elliot's name from all corporation documents. I have also enclosed for your review a copy of Mr. Fine's death certificate which hopefully affirms my situation for failing to file an annual report. Please let me know if you need any further documentation.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

William E. Black
