To Whom it may concern,

We are writing today to request you to waive the late fees on our annual Corporation report.

We received a post card in the mail concerning the 2005 Corporation dues. We went on line as requested and thought we had filed the report. Recently we received the report form in the mail. After contacting your office, we were told that the report had not been filed yet. As you can see, we have been a corporation for many, many years. We have never been late in filing. We are not sure how this happened, but it was not intentional. We are a small corporation and $400.00 is quite a large sum of money for us to pay for an honest error. The gentleman we spoke with on the phone this morning told us to pay the normal fee and send in this letter of explanation. We do hope you can waive this fee for us.

Thank You,

Kenneth Spivey Kenneth Spivey SDV
