Dear Sir or Madam:

It has recently come to my attention that our corporation status has become inactive. I mailed our uniform business report along with a copy of my business report on September 1st 2000. I contacted my bank and they have no record of the check that was sent with these documents.

I must conclude that you never received them therefore the reason my account became inactive. Please accept this letter as good faith that this was not an intentional mishap.

Sincerely,

Vicki L. Lockwood
Vice President
