Dear Sirs:

In regard to our phone conversation on July 11, 2005 I submitting a second letter as requested. In January 2005 I mailed the post card back for the Annual Report Form to be mailed to me for filing. That form was not received by me until May 27, 2005. After which I made a phone call to inform your office that I had just received the letter and how could I get the late charge of $400.00 waived. I was advised by a gentleman that I needed to submit a letter stating that the form was not received in January 2005 and to request the late charge to be waived.

On July 11, 2005 I received a letter from your office requesting the late charge of $400.00. I phoned your office and was told that the letter was not attached to the Annual Report Form. I faxed off the letter as requested by Katrina. Katrina called and said that she could not waive the late charge. I spoke to Andy Dunlop who advised me that I needed to include the date in which the Annual Report Form was received and fax it back to your office. I have complied with your request and I am once again requesting that the late charge be waived. I did not receive the form until May 27, 2005 which is well past the due date of May 1, 2005.

Your prompt attention in this matter is greatly appreciated. Please contact me with any further questions.

Sincerely,

Howard Sigel, PST
