Gentlemen:

This letter is written at the instruction of a representative in your office -

I regret that our payment to you is being sent so late, but I recently lost my husband and much of our small business was frauded by him (even tho I sign all checks) -

It was only when I received your final notice that this obligation was brought to my attention, and I called your office.

Your representative realized that my job has become much more complicated and I am making every effort to cover all my job and the work that my husband did in this shop.

I am sending our check for $16500 as I was advised to do.

Please know that I still operate this small firm and will not let this happen again.

Thank you for your understanding and consideration.

Very truly yours,
Flowers Shop, Inc.
Mary M. Sawyer Pres.
