Re: Lorenc Investment Co.
Document # 276370

Dear Ms. Hood,

I write to you at the request of my client Lorenc Investment Co. Recently the taxpayer was advised by his financial institution of Administrative of Dissolution by your offices. The taxpayer has reviewed all of their records and I have reviewed my files and find no record of receipt of the report for 2004. Perhaps the new method of filing via the internet with no forms being furnished to taxpayer confused the issue for this tax year. This corporation has always submitted this reports annually and I believe the new system started by Division of Corporations for 2004 was somewhat confusing.

Enclosed is the application for reinstatement along with a check in the amount of $150. We respectfully request abatement of the reinstatement fee. The taxpayer would have mailed this report if it were properly delivered to their offices using the old system. In addition, the taxpayer has continued to file other reports with the State such as intangible tax returns with the Department of Revenue. It would seem the Department of Revenue might have been alerted that the corporation involuntarily dissolved because of non-filing of the Annual Report.

Your consideration in this matter is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Mark P. Stanton, CPA
