To whom it may concern:

Today we are sending the appropriate paperwork for our 2004 For Profit Corporation Annual Report, document #343035. We are aware that this paperwork was due May 1, 2004, with the $150.00 filing fee. The owner and general manager of this facility (W.T. Thornhill) would normally handle this annual report; however, he was in failing health for the majority of 2004, and had been hospitalized four times since January of this year. Unfortunately, Mr. Thornhill passed away on May 6, 2004.

We return this document to you today, including a check for $150.00. Given the unusual circumstances our facility has experienced in 2004, we wonder if there could be any forgiveness applicable to our filing fee, knowing that per document 343035 the fee is indicated at $550.00 after May 1. Please contact us and let us know if indeed we need to send additional fees or penalties, or if we may somehow qualify for forgiveness or reduced amounts due.

Thank you for your consideration.
