Re: J E Childers Drilling, Inc.
Document # 400936

Dear Ms. Shepard:

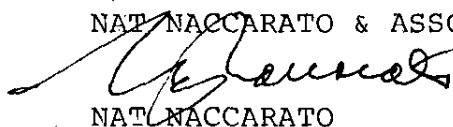

On July 29, 1999, the above referenced corporation filed a Statement of Change of Registered Office and Registered Agent (please see the enclosed copies). On that change form, it was noted that the street address for the business office would be the same as the address of the new Registered Agent.

In checking our records, we do not find any record of receiving the Uniform Business Report (previously known as the Annual Report). We then went to the Florida Department of State website and found that the address for the mailing for the Uniform Business Report has not been changed although the attached letter from your department assures us that the records have been corrected.

We have obtained a blank UBR form and have completed same. It is attached along with the check for filing in the amount of $150, which is the fee for timely filing the return. Due to the fact that this late filing is due to a problem with the address for mailing beyond our control, we are respectfully requesting that the late filing fee not be charged to this entity.

Very truly,

NAT NACCARATO & ASSOCIATES, P.A.
