Gentlemen:

On Friday, July 17, I received your LETTER NUMBER 298A00037104 regarding the late filing of my renewal of my incorporation. This morning I telephoned ^{about} the matter and spoke to someone who referred me to telephone number 850 487 6059. The person to whom I talked told me to staple a copy of the letter I had written on July 6 explaining the reason I was late in filing and attach it to the document plus a check in the amount of $150.00. All is included here.

Sincerely yours,

Amy Berner
President

Gentlemen:

This morning I spoke with a young lady in your office regarding my failure to file my "Corporation Annual Report" and she suggested I write to explain the reason.

I have been very ill for several months and I was unable to keep up with my business, overlooking the first notice for filing my annual report. Only recently have I recovered sufficiently to take care of business matters. On Thursday, July 2, I received the second notice. I was told by your representative to fill out the report, enclose a letter of explanation, and a check for $150.00. The report, my letter, and a check are enclosed.

I do hope all is in order.

Yours truly,

(Mrs.) Amy Berner
President
