Dear Sir or Madam

I'm requesting to be excused from the late fee on my corporation. I run this business with my wife. She suffers from Parkinsons disease. She recently succumbed to the disease in its fullest and is now completely bed ridden and can no longer help. Because she was so important administratively our schedules got misplaced. In this case this filing is one of them. I called the division of corporations and explained this. The lady I spoke to said that if I included a letter of explanation with my original fee the late fee could be waived. This would greatly be appreciated.

Sincerely,

Paul R. Germaine
