To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is in reference to the recent report that I received. It was marked that this was our 2nd notice and that the late filing fees per Corporation were $400.00 each. I am new to my position here at Bari's and we have been undergoing quite a few "changing of the guards" I guess you could put it and I am not sure if the paperwork was misplaced or if we had ever received it. I did not see it in any of the paperwork I was given from the other Controller and Accountants so the matter possibly was over-looked.

Our company has been a Corporation for 27 years and in that time span we have paid the filing fee penalty proof and were always on time with payment. So I am writing you today to ask that this innocent oversight not cost our company any extra monies if possible. It would be greatly appreciated by the company and its founders.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Angela R. Sierzega
