Dear Sirs,

11/14/01 JG3

On January 27th of this year, my father Don Nichols passed away. His company is Donic Corp Inc. He was a builder, and his Corporation was left with numerous rental properties in need of repairs, along with other houses under construction that I had to finish the building of. My father designated me as the executor over his estate, which now owns Donic Corp.

The address which you mailed the annual report to was my father's address. Since his death this property has not been the address of Donic Corp. I never got the annual report. I have never managed a Corporation, and am learning the hard way all the ins and outs in a C. Corp. I'm a young lady of 27 and I've never heard of this report until now. Now I find that my father's Corporation has been dissolved, because I never recieved this report to fill it out. This is devastating both emotionally and financially.
