Document #442465

To Whom It May Concern:

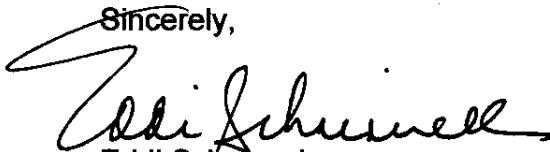

Enclosed please find copy of Notice of Dissolution for the above captioned which was received in today's mail. Upon receipt of the notice, I immediately called your office in Tallahassee and spoke with one of your representatives named Kathy and it is at her suggestion that I am writing this letter. I informed her that this was the first notification we received and was baffled as to why we were being dissolved. She mentioned that the renewal notices are sent out in January in post card form with instructions to go on-line and that this is the first year the filing instructions have been changed.

According to our records, A.I.M. Investment was reinstated in October 2001 at which time a payment of $758.75 was sent in with the form. Subsequently, the A.I.M. Investment Corp. renewals for 2002 and 2003 were mailed in a timely manner. I might add that we have several other corporations that have been renewed through our resident agent/attorney and are all currently active with the exception of the above mentioned.

In this regard, we would greatly appreciate your consideration in waiving the reinstatement fee of $750 at this time and kindly accepting the $150 fee that is enclosed with the application since we never received the renewal notices for 2004 for A.I.M. Investment Corp. and just recently became aware (through attached copy of dissolution) that your system for filing renewals has changed.

Your attention in this matter is deeply appreciated. We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Eddi Schainuck
