RE: International Publishing Company, Inc.

Dear Sir:

This office represents International Publishing Company, Inc.

Enclosed please find our client's check in the amount of $1,215.00 as payment for reinstatement of the above referenced company. They did not receive any notice in 1994 that the corporation was going to be dissolved nor did they receive any notice of the annual fee. Apparently, they did not realize this because another company, Publication International, S.A., Inc. Charter No. 607869 is also operated by them and they thought it was merely a fictitious name for International Publishing Company. Our client was paying the annual fees for Publication International, S.A., Inc. and thought they were paying for International Publishing Company, Inc.

In any event, we would greatly appreciate your waiving the late fee. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey S. Tanen
