Re: Document # 485814

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to inform you that we have changed our accountant and registered agent for the past two years and that why we have not received any correspondence from your corporate division. All of our mail was still going to the old accountant address that's why we were unaware of the renewal of our corporation. My mail should now go to my new registered agents address.

On the reinstatement I have the correct mailing address. Please excuse me for this misunderstanding and please accept my check totaling $450.00 dollars to renew 2006, 2007 AND 2008 for my corporation. If you have any questions please call me at the number above.

Sincerely

Robert C. Darlow
