It is not possible to find a single value for α that satisfies all the conditions. However, we can find a range of values for α that satisfy the conditions. For example, if we set $\alpha = 0.5$, then the conditions are satisfied. If we set $\alpha = 1$, then the conditions are also satisfied. In fact, any value of α between 0.5 and 1 will satisfy the conditions.

14. The Plaintiff avers that the defendant's actions with the filing of voluntarily dismissed and then full appeals for the exemption status for its two 100% tax exempt entities, together with the defendant's solicitation of the assistance of independent private appraisers, and its failure to pay the appraisers' fees for the appraisals performed at its own expense will cause irreparable harm to the Plaintiff and its shareholders and to the public interest in the proper operation of the tax system. The Plaintiff avers that the defendant's failure to pay the appraisers' fees for the appraisals performed at its own expense will cause irreparable harm to the Plaintiff and its shareholders and to the public interest in the proper operation of the tax system.
