Ladies and/or Gentlemen:

When I first received your form, I gave it to my bookkeeper with a note to not pay then (as funds were very short), but to not bury it so we would forget. She apparently buried it, but after rooting through her desk today, I found the form that was sent.

Actually I was out of the country when it became due or perhaps I would have remembered.

I am asking that you please forgive us for being late. We really cannot afford the $400 penalty which you apparently give for being late.

I will try to mark my calendar next year to see that this does not happen again.

Sincerely,

Pat Owen, President
