To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is in response to the telephone conversations I have had with your employees. One conversation was in the last few days and the other before I mailed in our report. The first conversation was with a nice lady and after hearing what happened she told me to just send the report in with the $150.00. So I did. I thought she meant she would mark the file and the late fees would be forgiven.

Then I received your letter dated August 29th, 2002 stating I would have to pay $391.25 more to file the report. Needless to say I am a bit confused. So I called the second time. This lady told me to send the report in with a letter explaining what happened. I had filled out the report and given it to my husband to make a check. We both thought it had been mailed around the end of April. After receiving the letter from you I searched for it and finally found it under other paperwork. I was being treated for thyroid problems at the time and I was afraid that my cancer had come back for the 4th time. Past history of 2 different lung cancers and a brain tumor and now suffering from side effects of radiation and chemotherapy. I am also on a lot of pain meds. It took me almost 2 and a half hours to type this. I will wait for your reply and either way I appreciate your consideration.

Sincerely,

Mary J. Farnan
