Re: 59-16922328

Dear Reader of this letter:

In October, 1999, I changed the name of my company to that above, as well as the address.

I never received a 2000 Uniform Business Report prior to May 1; I did receive the second notice, only because someone at the old address brought it to me.

For some reason, the State of Florida did not pick up the address change, although it did change the name of the corporation. Consequently, I was forced to pay a late fee of $400.00.

The correct check in the amount of $550.00 is enclosed; however, I hereby request a refund of the $400.00 late fee, insofar as I did not receive the first notice. You will note that I have paid the corporate tax prior to the due date since 1976, never having missed the May date.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

John T. Conroy, Jr., CCIM
President
