D. To do all and every thing necessary and proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attaining of any of the objects or the furtherance of any of the purposes enumerated in these Articles of Incorporation or any amendment thereof necessary or incidental to the protection and benefit of this professional corporation, and in general, either alone or in association with other corporations, firms or individuals to carry on any lawful pursuit necessary or incidental to the accomplishment of the purposes or the attainment of the objects or the furtherance of such purposes or objects of this professional corporation.

The foregoing paragraphs shall be construed as enumerating objects, purposes and powers of this professional corporation, and it is hereby expressly provided that the foregoing enumeration of specific purposes and powers shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the purposes of this professional corporation, otherwise permitted by law.

ARTICLE III

The duration of this professional corporation shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE IV

The maximum number of shares of capital stock to be issued by this professional corporation shall be one thousand (1,000) shares of common stock having a nominal par value of One Dollar ($1.00) per share, all of which shall be of the same class. The same may be issued only for a consideration having a value, in the judgment of the Board of Directors of this professional corporation, at least equivalent to the full par value of the stock to be issued, as determined at a meeting of the Board of Directors held for such purpose. All stock issued shall be fully paid and non-assessable. The shareholders shall have no preemptive rights with respect to the stock of this professional corporation, and this professional corporation may issue and sell its common stock from time to time without offering such shares to the shareholders then holding shares of common stock. Shares of stock of this professional corporation and certificates therefor shall be issued only to attorneys at law authorized and licensed to practice law in the State of Florida.

ARTICLE V

The stock of this professional corporation may be issued, owned and registered only in the name or names of an individual or individuals who are duly authorized and licensed to practice law in the State of Florida. If any shareholder becomes legally disqualified to practice law in the State of Florida, or accepts employment that places restrictions or limitations upon his continuous rendering of such professional services, the shares of stock of such shareholder shall immediately become subject to purchase by this corporation in accordance with the by-laws of this corporation. This professional corporation shall have the power to include in its by-laws regulatory or restrictive provisions regarding the proposed sale, purchase, transfer or other disposition of any of the outstanding shares of the stock of this professional corporation.

ARTICLE VI

No shareholder of this professional corporation shall enter into a voting trust agreement or any other type of agreement vesting in another person the authority to exercise the voting power of any or all of the shares of such shareholder.

ARTICLE VII

The amount of capital with which this professional corporation will begin business is Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00).

ARTICLE VIII

The name and street address of the incorporator and subscriber of these Articles of Incorporation, the number of shares of stock he agrees to take, and the value of the consideration therefor, are:

ARTICLE XIII

No contract or other transaction between this professional corporation and any other corporation shall be affected by the fact that any director of this professional corporation is interested in, or is a director or officer of, such other corporation, and any director, individually or jointly, may be a party to, or may be interested in, any contract or transaction of this professional corporation or in which this professional corporation is interested; and no contract, or other transaction of this professional corporation with any person, firm, or corporation, shall be affected by the fact that any director of this professional corporation is a party in any way connected with such person, firm, or corporation, and every person who may become a director of this professional corporation is hereby relieved from any liability that might otherwise exist from contracting with this professional corporation for the benefit of such person or any firm, association, or corporation in which such person may be in any way interested.

ARTICLE XIV

The street address of the initial registered office of this corporation is 1214 14th Street West, Bradenton, Florida 33505, and the name of the initial registered agent of this corporation at that address is L. Floyd Price.

ARTICLE XV

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the manner provided by law. Every amendment shall be approved by the Board of Directors, proposed by them to the shareholders, and approved at a meeting of the shareholders by a majority of the stock entitled to vote thereon, unless all the directors and all the shareholders sign a written statement manifesting their intention that a certain amendment of these Articles of Incorporation be made.

Subscribed this the 10 day of May, 1977.

Dear Ms. Fleming:

Pursuant to our telephone conversation of May 1, 1979, I am returning herewith Articles of Amendment of L. Floyd Price, Chartered, dated April 2, 1979. Further, this is to acknowledge that we have been advised by you that there is presently a Florida corporation by the name of Price & Price, Inc., and, notwithstanding that fact, we desire to have our corporation carry the name, Price & Price, Chartered, and request that you process the enclosed application therefor.

Thank you very much for your cooperation in this matter.

Very truly yours,
