Attention: Katherine Harris,
Secretary of State

Dear Katherine Harris:

Enclosed is the 2000 Uniform Business Report which we have completed will mail it to you, together with our check for $150.

We have filed every year since 1977, the year that we incorporated under sub-chapter category. We sold our business in February 1998, however, the new owner, Opa Locka Diner abandoned the property and we are in the legal process of taking back the business. Our entity name, Chasin & Chasin, Inc. is once again the owner/Operator. Because we were not using the corporation, I did not renew the corporate filing, in May/2000. Since we will be running the business again, I am sending you the enclosed renewal form and check for $150.

We are having some costly problems and legal expense, however, and hope you will understand why our Uniform Business Report was not filed on a timely basis. We did run the restaurant for 40 years with an excellent record and we anticipate a satisfactory return to business.

Our FEIN is the same as before: 59-1767362.

Thanks you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Chasin & Chasin, Inc.
Lillian Chasin, Secretary/Director
