Dear Sirs:

We are sorry for the oversight of not paying this report fee on time. Somehow we never received the form from your office. We also changed accountants this year, and our last accountant office always took care of this. We are asking that you please waive the late fee based on our past record of always having paid on time.

We have also moved our business location. This was done at the beginning of the year so that may be a reason for us not having received this form. Here are our new mailing addresses. There are two addresses, one is a physical location the other is our post office box.
