Dear Sir or Madam:

We own the corporations off reference. We download the filing documents on time to pay for the corporation yearly fee. Unfortunately our accountant dies in February of this year after a short term of illness without sending the filing fee on time.

Since we are a small corporation he was the only one to handle this matter and we are trying to fix this and other problems as they appear.

Thru this letter we are respectfully asking if you can avoid these penalty in this case on time before this happened.

If you check our records you can see these corporations are very old and we always file on time before this happened.

Enclose you will find the fees for the three corporations, hoping you can help us in this matter.

Thanking you in advance for your attention, we remain.

Very truly yours

Jose Suarez
