Subject: INGO INTERNATIONAL INVESTMENTS, INC.

Reference Number: 587514

Dear Ms. Milligan,

During our telephone conversation today it appeared that the letter of explanation I had included in my correspondence of August 15, 2001 to your department had again disappeared from the rest of my mailing, so I am enclosing a copy of that letter to your attention.

As I mentioned to you, in 23 years of filing my corporate report, this is the first time that it was lost in the mail along with the other report filed in March. I never had to mail the report certified mail but after this experience it might be prudent to do so, although not required. $400 penalty is a lot of money to have to pay for something I did not have any control over. I have paid the penalty a few time over the last 23 years when I did file late, but this time the report was filed on time but was not received by your department. I hope, you can find it in your heart to wave the penalty and accept the filing as being on time.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Lutz I. Perschmann,
President
