To Whom It May Concern:

We have just received your "Notice of Dissolution or Revocation," which comes as quite a surprise to us. I have been calling around trying to find out what we do next, as well as what we should have done to avoid having this action taken against us. Apparently, we should have previously received a notice of some kind telling us what we needed to do to file our "2005 annual report." This notice was never received. I do not know when the notice was sent, but I know that two invoices were sent to us late in June from one of our major suppliers but never arrived. I assumed it was an isolated incident, but now I wonder what else we didn't receive.

Your automated phone message said I should send the "Corporation Reinstatement" form, the $150 filing fee, and a letter of explanation. Please let me know if I have done anything incorrectly or if you have any additional questions. Thank you for your time and consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Lisa Birch
Berger & Miller, P.A.
