Dear Sir or Madam:

I have just received in the mail an annual report packet for the year 1998 with 2ND NOTICE printed on the front page with a filing fee of $550.00.

This came as a big surprise since I never received the first notice. Perhaps my recent move to North Carolina at the beginning of the year was responsible for this.

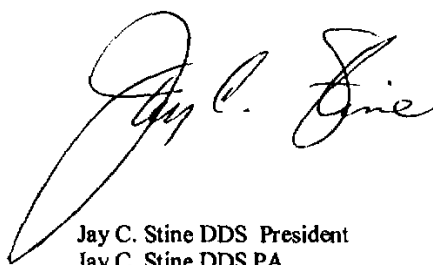

I spoke with a representative, Linda, this morning and she said to submit a letter of explanation along with the Annual Report and a check for $150.00. I am doing so.

I have maintained this corporation since 1973 and have never been late filing an annual report.

I retired from my dental practice in 1993 on full disability; thus there is limited activity within the corporation. All necessary corporate returns were filed in a timely manner in January.

I hope you will find this acceptable and process this report as if it were received on time.

Sincerely,

Jay C. Stine DDS President
