To Whom It May Concern:

It has been brought to my attention that my company, Bannerman Landscaping Inc, was updated on June 9, 2023 without my consent or authorization. This unauthorized update has caused concern and disruption to the business operations. As the owner and operator of Bannerman Landscaping Inc, I have not provided any permission for such updates to occur. It is of utmost importance that any changes or updates to the company be discussed and approved by myself prior to implementation. I will be taking necessary steps to address this issue and ensure that it does not happen again in the future. Any help regarding this matter would be greatly appreciated. Thank you advance.
