Dear Ms. Mortham:

June 27, 1997

In May of this year, our office in Miami was devastated by a catastrophic fire. What records were not burned by the fire or destroyed by the firemen were boxed and relocated. I pray you will never have to go through such a disaster. I share this with you not as an excuse for filing late, but just to highlight the fact that this has been (so far) a very bad year for us.

Our office is responsible for the fillings of six corporations:

Florida Building Inspection Services, Inc. BPR, Inc. Diamond Building Inspections, Inc. BIS International Corporation PROBIS, Inc. Karisma Enterprises, Inc.

You can imagine my dismay when I realized that the State of Florida was imposing more than a $2,300.00 penalty on $1,000.00 in filing fees. With all that has happened I just cannot afford such penalties.

I understand rules, but I also understand that sometimes adjustments can be made. The real purpose of this letter is to request such an adjustment. I am including our checks for the original filing fee for each corporation of $165.00 in that hope that, just this once, you would forgive the late payment penalties.

Thank you for your mercy and consideration.

Sincerely

Craig M. Chaddock, Sr.

President
