RE: Electrostatic Industrial Painting, Inc.
Doc # 638736

Attn: Reinstatements - Tina

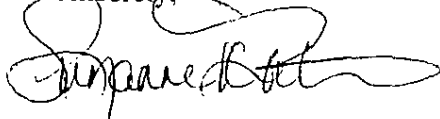

I would like to request that you accept this reinstatement application and waive the $300 penalty. The reason for the request is that the owner of the company, Rosa Lugo was robbed at gunpoint in Miami outside of her business in the beginning on May, 2009. The men who robbed her had followed her from her Wachovia Bank branch and she was carrying her briefcase with her business checking accounts in it and some cash. They took her purse, briefcase and car. She contacted the bank right away and they closed her account and open new accounts for her. The check hadn't cleared at that time but she did not realize that and the bank has been calling them about which checks to clear from the old account. When it came to the renewal check for the corporation, maybe because it was later in the month, I guess, the bank did not clear it or even call her about it and sent it back.

We did receive one letter and we sent out $165 for that, which turned out to be for the other corporation, Electrostatic Painting Service Holding Corp. that she sent out a check immediately for. That was the only letter we received and so we assumed the other check has cleared the old bank account.

In addition to that disaster, her husband fell off their roof in June of 2008 and has been paralyzed since. They are having financial difficulties as well at this time.

Please contact this office to let me know your decision about this matter.

Sincerely,

Suzanne K. Peterson
